

The Pyramid Model Workshops

October 19th, 20th and 26th 2017

The South Australian Pyramid Teaching Implementation Project is part of the newly established collaborative partnership between Department for Education and Child Development (DECD) including Special Education Resources Unit (SERU), Gowrie SA, Flinders University, Australian Association of Special Education (AASE) and Early Childhood Intervention Australia (ECIA) SA Chapter.

Please join us for the following professional learning workshops presented by Professor Mary Louise Hemmeter (USA) and Professor Jennifer Grisham-Brown (USA) and to hear more about the opportunity to be involved in the SA Pyramid Teaching Implementation Project.

Workshop 1 Introduction to the Pyramid Model 19th and 20th October 2017 | 9.00am - 4.30pm

Cost: $140 for both days / AASE Members $100 for both days

Location: EDC, Hindmarsh

Register: <http://tiny.cc/pyramidmodel>

Workshop 2 Inclusive practices in early childhood settings 26th October 2017 | 9.00am - 4.30pm

Cost: $70.00 / AASE Members $50.00

Location: Flinders University, Tonsley

Register: <http://tiny.cc/inclusivepractices>

NOTE: AASE Members will need to pay the full amount during the registration process and then be reimbursed for the discounted amount.

Lunch and refreshments are included.

For any special dietary requirements or further information please email: tneldner.sa@ecia.org.au